

---

MS. BRUNHILDE SCHRAM

---

Ms. Brunhilde Schram is a CSR/Sustainability expert, consultant and coach for corporate management and change management, lecturer, EFQM Assessor (European Foundation for Quality Management) and internal auditor for issues relating to CSR and sustainability.

She is an alumna of the Salzburg and Krems Universities and at the Open University in London as well as in Heidelberg und Bielefeld in the fields of “Economics, Psychology and General Management and Knowledge Management”. She further trained at the LIMAK (Austrian Business School) as a Supervisory Board Member and in the field of Basle II. She has long-standing experience in export and projects in industry, in small and medium-sized enterprises and in the service sector.

Ms. Schram is the recipient of many awards and prizes for special performance and accomplishments in the fields of education and economics, which has been granted by different Ministries and the Provincial Government. Her publication on the topic of “Implementation and Anchoring of Corporate Social Responsibility in Management as a Concept for the Future” is widely acclaimed.

She acts as the 2nd Federal and Provincial CSR Spokesperson for the promotion of CSR topics and is an initiator of the Congress of Technical Experts “Reichersberg Sustainability Dialogues”.